

Award-winning storyteller Sharon Kennedy presents...

Inca, Aztec, and Mayan Folktales from South America

Performances and Workshops for Grades 2-8

Sharon has just returned from a fascinating trip to Ecuador, collecting stories from shamans and healers in the rainforest and the Andes.

Now she's ready to share her tales with your students.

Constellation Myths • Trickster Tales Origin and Creation Myths

For 3rd and 4th graders, Sharon will tell Ecuadorian trickster tales, comparing and contrasting them with Anansi, Br'er Rabbit, Coyote, and Iktomi stories to go with your curriculum standards.

For 7th and 8th graders, Sharon will tell epic tales of twin heroes—complex stories of quests and tasks—from the Quechua of Ecuador and the Sioux of North America.

Workshops available in:

- Creating your own trickster tales
- Analyzing themes, structures, and elements of myths
- Creating constellation myths

Block bookings always available.
Special discounts if your school has visits from "Mary Margaret O'Connell" or
"Susannah Winslow"

for bookings:
Sharon Kennedy
98 Brooks Street
Medford, MA 02155
(617) 393-7566
www.sharonkennedy.com